

Dear Elli,

Because of your way of preserving family history in such a warm and caring way, the recent loss of my Father has been lessened.

When I watch the video or read the book I laugh and cry and feel close to him.

I can't think of a greater treasure to have for my self or my children. They love reading the stories about their family.

I can't thank you enough for your wonderful idea.
Love Bonnie